

Recognition of ETAPP

ETAPP is accepted as the end-of-course exam for courses on the Department of Education and Science Internationalisation Register of ACELS approved courses.

ETAPP is accepted by the Department of Justice and the GNIB as a test of English language proficiency.

ETAPP has been accepted by the following third level institutions for entry onto their courses and it is under consideration by others:

DCU	(Dublin City University)
NUIG	(National University of Ireland, Galway)
DIT	(Dublin Institute of Technology)
DBS	(Dublin Business School)
NCIRL	(National College of Ireland)
UCC	(University College Cork)
UCD	(University College Dublin)
NUIM	(National University of Ireland, Maynooth)
UL	(University of Limerick)
RCSI	(Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland)

IOTCEF (Institutes of Technology Common Evaluation Forum). TIE and ETAPP (at C1) are accepted for entry onto their courses for non-standard applicants. The following institutes are all involved in this central evaluation process:

Athlone IT	Blanchardstown IT
IT Carlow	Cork IT
Dundalk IT	IADT
Galway Mayo IT	Letterkenny IT
Limerick IT	IT Sligo
IT Tallaght	IT Tralee
Waterford IT	